

An Drúchtín agus an Seilide

á chur i láthair ag Natalie Ní Chasaide

DÉ SATHAIRN 11 BEALTAINÉ - SATURDAY 11 MAY

12:00-12:45 & 2:00-2:45

TEAGHLAIGH AGUS PÁISTÍ (AOIS 6-9)

FAMILIES AND CHILDREN (AGES 6-9)

LEABHARLANN SHRÁID AN PHIARSAIGH PEARSE STREET LIBRARY

Caithfear spásanna a chur in áirithe roimh ré, cuir rphost chuig majella@imram.ie le hainmneacha agus aois na bpáistí.

Places must be booked in advance, send an email to majella@imram.ie with the names and ages of the children.

Seo scéal faoi dhá dhrúchtín a mhair go sona sásta fadó, gan bhlaosc mar shrian orthu. Ach tagann an lá go gcasann siad le préachán a chruthaíonn deighilt agus teannas eatarthu. An féidir leo na difríochtaí atá eatarthu a réiteach?

Seo scéal atá bunaithe ar leabhar Oein DeBharduin, scéal a shíolraíonn ó thraidisiún béil an Lucht Siúil. Beidh an scéal á insint ag Natalie Ní Chasaide in éineacht le drúchtín, seilide agus préachán agus beidh go leor draíochta ann. Cuirfidh an scéal ag canadh, ag bogadh, agus ag bríonglóidí sibh!

Long ago two slugs lived quite happily, without shells. But the day comes when they meet a crow who creates tension and division between them. Can they resolve their differences? This story, based on the book by Oein DeBharduin, draws on the oral tradition of the Travelling People and is presented by musician and teacher Natalie Ní Chasaide. Natalie tells the story with a slug, a snail, a crow and lots of magic!